Pathology and Laboratory Guidelines

Items used by all physicians in reporting their services are presented in the Introduction. Some of the commonalities are repeated here for the convenience of those physicians referring to this section on Pathology and Laboratory. Other definitions and items unique to Pathology and Laboratory are also listed.

Services in Pathology and Laboratory

Services in Pathology and Laboratory are provided by a physician or by technologists under responsible supervision of a physician.

Separate or Multiple Procedures

It is appropriate to designate multiple procedures that are rendered on the same date by separate entries.

Unlisted Service or Procedure

A service or procedure may be provided that is not listed in this edition of the CPT codebook. When reporting such a service, the appropriate “Unlisted Procedure” code may be used to indicate the service, identifying it by “Special Report” as discussed below. The “Unlisted Procedures” and accompanying codes for Pathology and Laboratory are as follows:

- 81099 Unlisted urinalysis procedure
- 84999 Unlisted chemistry procedure
- 85999 Unlisted hematology and coagulation procedure
- 86486 unlisted antigen, each
- 86849 Unlisted immunology procedure
- 86999 Unlisted transfusion medicine procedure
- 87999 Unlisted microbiology procedure
- 88099 Unlisted necropsy (autopsy) procedure
- 88199 Unlisted cytopathology procedure
- 88299 Unlisted cytogenetic study
- 88399 Unlisted surgical pathology procedure
- 88749 Unlisted in vivo (eg, transcutaneous) laboratory service
- 89240 Unlisted miscellaneous pathology test
- 89398 Unlisted reproductive medicine laboratory procedure

Special Report

A service that is rarely provided, unusual, variable, or new may require a special report. Pertinent information should include an adequate definition or description of the nature, extent, and need for the procedure; and the time, effort, and equipment necessary to provide the service.
